TRAVEL ITINERARY

Day 1	Phuentsholing	Day 5	Paro
Day 2	Thimphu	Day 6	Paro
Day 3	Punakha	Day 7	Siliguri
Day 4	Phobjikha	Day 8	Bagdogra

DAY BY DAY, SCENE BY SCENE

DAY 01: PHUENTSHOLING

Flat land behind you, mountains waiting. First stop is the border, not the summit.

ARRIVAL | BORDER CROSSING

- Land in Bagdogra, meet the team, start your transfer toward Bhutan.
- Drive to Jaigaon, the last town on Indian soil.
- Cross into Bhutan at Phuentsholing and get your permits sorted.
- Check in and rest up for the climb ahead.
- Overnight in Phuentsholing.

THE SPARK

That first step across the border, from Jaigaon into Bhutan, is a quiet little thrill.

THE TIP

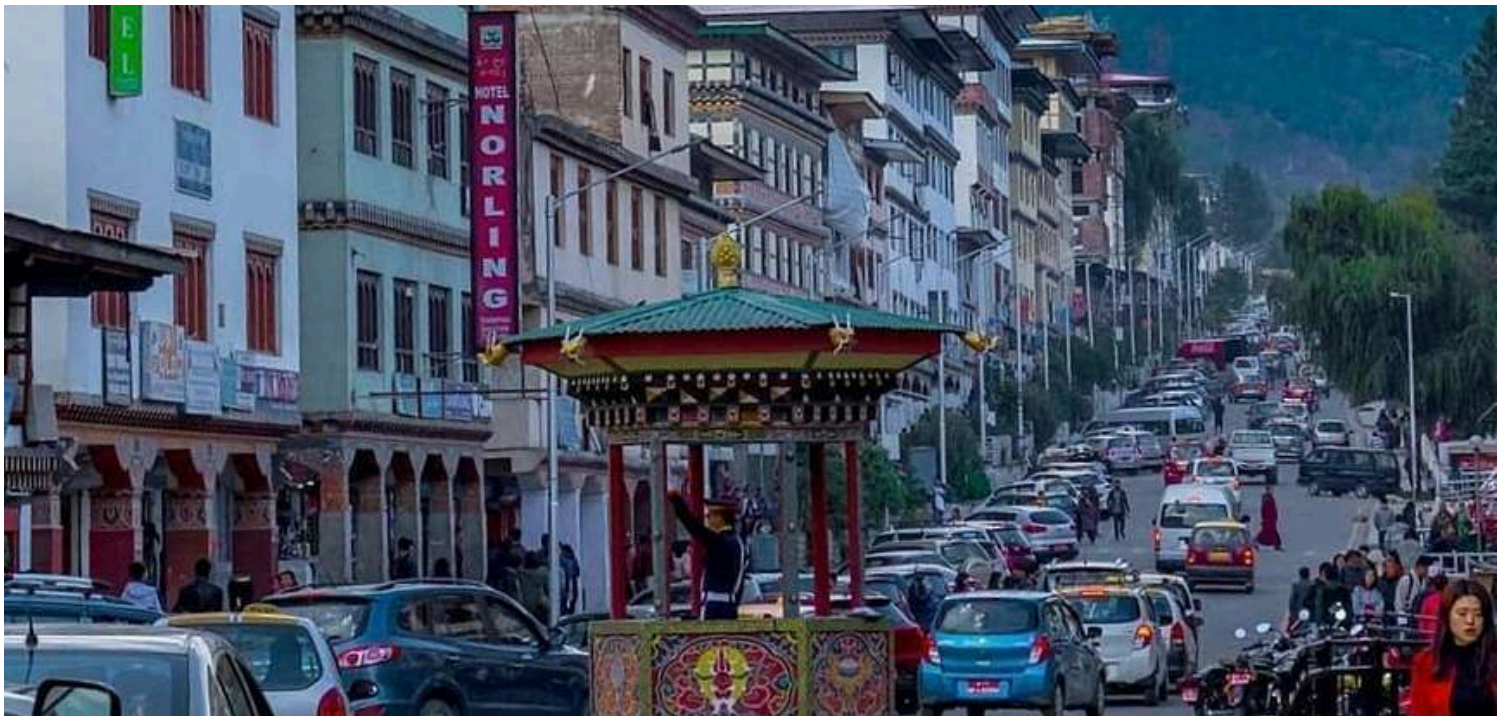

Keep your ID and permit papers handy, the crossing moves faster when you're ready.

THE CREW

Long travel day, first round of introductions, everyone easing into trip mode together.

DAY 02: THIMPHU

The road climbs through forest and waterfall country straight into Bhutan's capital.

MOUNTAIN ROADS CAPITAL CITY

- Drive from Phuentsholing to Thimphu through winding mountain roads.
- Pass broadleaf forests, waterfalls and small villages along the way.
- Stop at Chuzom Bridge, where the Paro and Thimphu rivers meet below a mural of the King and Queen.
- Visit Simply Bhutan museum for a quick hit of local culture.
- Check in, then explore Thimphu's markets or streets if there's time. Overnight in Thimphu.

THE SPARK

Thimphu is the only capital city on earth with zero traffic lights, you'll feel that calm the moment you arrive.

THE TIP

Carry a light jacket, the temperature drops fast once you're off the valley floor.

THE CREW

The drive gives everyone time to talk, trade playlists, and settle into the group's rhythm.

DAY 03: PUNAKHA

One pass, one giant Buddha, and a fortress sitting where two rivers meet.

DOCHULA PASS DZONG

- Check out and stop at the Buddha Dordenma statue overlooking Thimphu.
- Drive on to Punakha via Dochula Pass, pausing for tea with Himalayan views.
- See the 108 Druk Wangyal Chortens, built for soldiers lost in Operation All Clear, 2003.
- Check in at Punakha, then visit Punakha Dzong at the Phochhu-Mochhu river confluence.
- Walk the Punakha Suspension Bridge before heading back. Overnight in Punakha.

THE SPARK

Standing on Dochula Pass with a hot cup of tea and the Himalayas laid out in front of you, that's a moment that sticks.

THE TIP

Dochula gets windy and cold even on clear days, layer up before you step out.

THE CREW

Everyone slows down together at the pass, cameras out, nobody in a hurry for once.

DAY 04: PHOBJIKHA

A short hike to a temple of legends, then down into Bhutan's quietest valley.

TEMPLE HIKE VALLEY CALM

- Breakfast, then a short hike to Chimi Lhakhang, the Temple of Fertility.
- Temple is linked to Lam Drukpa Kuenley, the Divine Mad Man, and his legend of fertility blessings.
- Continue on to Phobjikha Valley.
- Check in and spend the rest of the day at leisure.
- Overnight in Phobjikha.

THE SPARK

The walk up to Chimi Lhakhang comes with stories that'll make the whole group laugh.

THE TIP

Wear proper shoes, the trail to the temple is short but uneven in places.

THE CREW

A lighter day means more downtime, good for card games or just sitting around talking.

DAY 05: PARO

Last big drive of the loop, then Paro is yours to wander.

TRANSFER FREE TIME

- Breakfast in Phobjikha, then board transfers for Paro.
- Reach Paro by evening and check in.
- Rest of the day is free, explore at your own pace and cost.
- Overnight in Paro.

THE SPARK

Having a free evening in a new town, no plan, no schedule, is its own kind of reward on a trip like this.

THE TIP

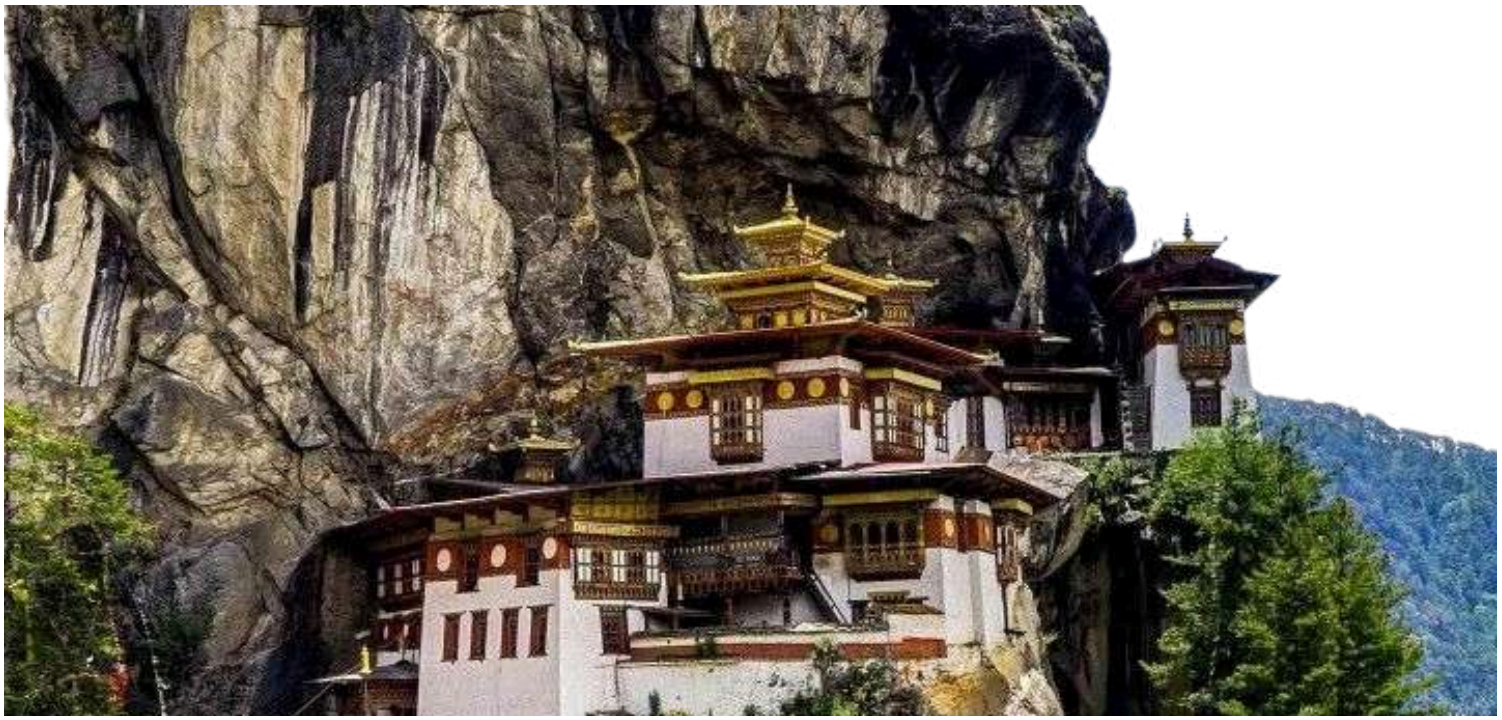

Scope out the next day's hike route tonight if you can, it helps to know what's coming.

THE CREW

Everyone splits off to explore their own way, then regroups with stories over dinner.

DAY 06: PARO

This is the day the whole trip is built around. Tiger's Nest or bust.

BIG HIKE | TIGER'S NEST

- Drive to the trailhead, 11 km from Paro, for Taktsang Monastery.
- Hike through pine forest for 2 to 4 hours depending on pace. Reach
- Tiger's Nest, clinging to a cliff 900 meters above the valley. Take
- time at the monastery, listen to the chants, sit with the quiet. Hike
- back down and return to Paro for the night.

THE SPARK

Nothing quite prepares you for seeing Tiger's Nest stuck to that cliff face for the first time.

THE TIP

Start early, carry water, and pace the climb, altitude makes it tougher than it looks.

THE CREW

The hike up is where the group really bonds, everyone pushing each other to the top.

DAY 07: SILIGURI

Bhutan fades behind you as the road rolls back toward India.

RETURN ROAD BORDER AGAIN

- Breakfast, then start the return road journey from Paro.
- Cross back through Phuentsholing into India.
- Reach Siliguri by evening and check in.
- Overnight in Siliguri.

THE SPARK

The ride back always feels different, quieter, everyone replaying the trip in their heads.

THE TIP

Keep your permit and ID copies ready again for the border crossing out of Bhutan.

THE CREW

Last night together usually means one more round of stories before everyone heads home.

DAY 08: BAGDOGRA

The mountains stay behind, the memories don't.

DEPARTURE

- Check out after breakfast.
- Head to Bagdogra Airport on your own, timed to your flight.

THE SPARK

That last look back at the hills before you fly out says more than any photo.

THE TIP

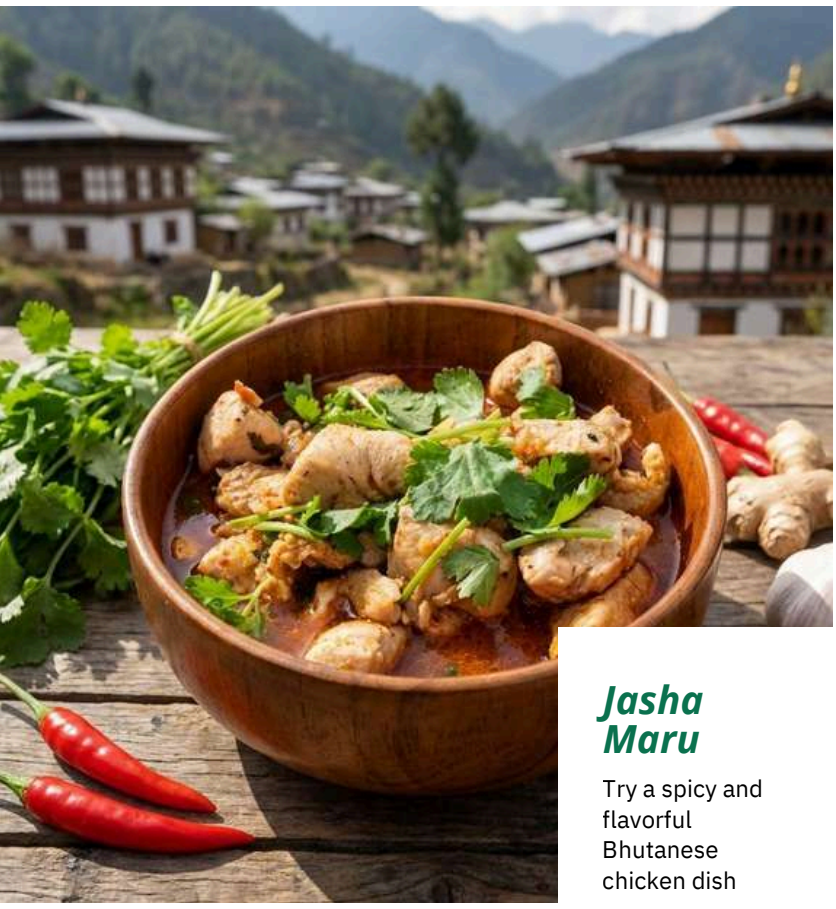

Keep buffer time for the drive to Bagdogra, don't cut it close with your flight.

THE CREW

Quick goodbyes, numbers exchanged, a trip's worth of memories to carry home.
